F. B. CATE REAL ESTATE AGENCY

The money you throw away in poor speculations would be better invested in real property which stays where it is put. You who do not own your home, figure up the amount you have spent in rent during your life. Better use paper and pencil, for it may prove to be an arithmetical problem. Now you can see for yeurself what a poor investment your so-called home has been.

THIS HOUSE is a bargain. It is on John Street. Contains six rooms closets and pantry. JOHN HAY'S WILL FILED.

Bequests to Brothers and Sister and Gives Residue to Widow.

Washington, July 21 .- The will of John Hay, late secretary of state, was filed for probate yesterday in the office of the register of wills for the District of Columbia. The beneficiaries are his widow and his brothers and sister.

His brother, Leonard Hay, and his sister, Mary Hay Woolfolk, are given all of the property at Warsaw, Ill., and the sum of $25,000 each. His brother, Charles Edward Hay, is given $50,000, and Harwood Otis Whitney of Keokuk, Iowa, $2,000. All the rest of the property of all description is left to his widow, Clara Stone Hay.

Nothing is contained in the will to indicate the value of the estate. Payne Whitney and James Wolcott Wadsworth, Jr., sons-in-law of the deceased, are named as executors of the estate, and the request is made in the testament that no bonds shall be exacted.
